PROFESSOR GRIFFIN.

LONDON, 21st January.
A strong feeling is being aroused in England and on the Continent against Prince Bismarck in consequence of what is described by his vindictive treatment of Professor Giffen. The Professor is now being examined as an alleged lunatic.

THE INCREASE IN THE FRENCH ARMY.

LONDON, 22nd January.
The French Chamber of Deputies has passed the Army Increase Bill. M. de Freycinet, Minister for War, stated that under the bill 3,000,000 men would be required for active service in the army.

THE COLONIAL AND IMPERIAL INSTITUTE.

LONDON, 23rd January.
It is reported that, subject to ratification by the Fellows of the Royal Colonial Institute, the Colonial and Imperial Institute will be amalgamated. The former body partly retains its individuality. The name of the new body will be the Imperial and Royal Colonial Institute.

FEDERATION OF THE AMERICAN STATES AND GREECE.

LONDON, 23rd January.
The Government of Montenegro is endeavouring to promote the Federation of Romania, Serbia, Bulgaria, Montenegro, and Greece.

DEATH OF A CELEBRATED ARTIST.

LONDON, 24th January.
The death is announced of Mr. Pellegrini, the well-known artist, celebrated for the caricatures published in Vanity Fair with the signature of "Ape."

MR. CHAMBERLAIN AT BRIMINGHAM.

LONDON, 24th January.
Mr. Chamberlain, in addressing a public meeting at Birmingham, expressed his opinion that America ought to make the next overtures in regard to the subordinate position which the Irish question at present occupies in political affairs. He also urged the re-establishment of district councils and free schools, and the use of the State credit to create small shareholders in England.

FRENCH AGGRESSION IN THE COMORO ISLANDS.

LONDON, 24th January.
The inhabitants of the Comoro Islands, in the Mozambique channel, are seeking British protection in order to escape from French aggression.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF BILL.

LONDON, 24th January.
There is a strong desire at the Cape of Good Hope that Sir Hartley Robinson, whose term of office shortly expires, should remain the Governor of the colony.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

LONDON, 24th January.
The death is announced of Ilma de Mirella, the once famous Hungarian soprano. It appears that she wrote letters to her daughter, and committed suicide directly afterwards.

LONDON, 24th January.

The remains of the late Madame Ilma De Mirella, who died in abject poverty at Munich, and also of her daughter, who died soon after her, having of her mother's death been pronounced.

FRENCH INTERESTS IN THE EASTERN PACIFIC.

LONDON, 24th January.
M. Goblet, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, has discussed with Lord Lytton, British Ambassador at Paris, the question of British and French interests in the Eastern Pacific. He has instructed M. Waddington, the French Minister in London, to approach Lord Salisbury in reference to the British annexation of the Island of Tasmania, which is claimed by France as a dependent of Tahiti.

THE PARNELL "TIMES" COMMISSION.

LONDON, 24th January.
At today's sitting of the Parli. Com. Commission, a clerk in the employ of the National League, named Farnschafer, swore that he had lied to Maitland, one of the emissaries of the League, several cheques paid by Eggn. He saw Poole, a member of the Irondale organisation, who was afterwards executed, receive money supplied by the League. He also identified Campbell's writing.

THE HAMAS DIFCUITY.

LONDON, 24th January.
The American gunboat Vandalia has been despatched from San Francisco to the Far East.

Mr. Bayard, the American Secretary of State, declares that if the neutrality of Samoa be interfered with, Germany breaks the treaty with Great Britain, and not with America.

It is reported that England, Germany, and America have agreed upon a course of action in regard to Samoa.

LONDON, 24th January.
Mr. Bayard, American Secretary of State, has received intelligence to the effect that the American subjects in Samoa, who were reported to have been imprisoned by the Germans, have been released. He is now of opinion that the recent report as to the disturbed situation in Samoa are exaggerated. Mr. Bayard believes that there will be no infringement of international rights on the part of Germany.

AUSTRALIA.

LONDON, 24th January.
The object of the visit of the German warship Eur to Australia is to enable the commander to open up cable communications with Berlin and await despatches. The Germans at Samoa have taken no further action since the recent fighting, pending instructions from the Government. The officers of the Eur deny the statement in the cable alleging that the German sailors had raised the American flag and imprisoned American subjects.

LONDON, 24th January.

The British Relations Committee has been informed by Mr. H. M. Sewell, the United States Consul at Apia, that to the best of his belief an agreement has been arrived at by which England will receive Tonga and the Haurian Islands, on condition that Germany is allowed Samoa. He considers that Admiral Kimberley, of the American corvette Trident, must be invested with enlarged powers to effect any lasting results in the Samoan group in the interests of the United States.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

LONDON, 24th January.
The United States Government are making efforts to strengthen their fleet by the purchase and fitting out of suitable large steamers.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN LOAN.

The new South Australian three, and a half per cent. loan has been placed on the London market.

THE TRAMWAY STRIKE IN NEW YORK.

The New York cables announce that over 5,000 tramway employees have struck work.

THE COPPER SYNDICATE.

The French Copper Syndicate has suspended buying operations for the present, and in consequence copper has a downward tendency, Child being quoted at 273 per ton.

MURDER AT GATESHEAD.

A police constable was murdered at Gateshead by a butcher. The murderer was immediately arrested.

THE SHIP TO VISIT ENGLAND.

The Shah of Persia has announced his intention to visit England shortly.

MR. GLADSTONE AND HIS AMERICAN ADAMKERS.

Gladstone has received a highly complimentary address, signed by General Harrison and many other leading Americans, expressing their great admiration of his untiring efforts to obtain Home Rule for Ireland.
